TO OUR PRIENDS.

Gentlemen who arrive from the United States with late papers, will confer a favor by saving them at the counting room of the APPEAL office or at the editor's room, over GEO. LAKE'S store, next door north of the Collins House. If these days of uncertain mails from the South and a blockade on the North, our facilities to furnish the latest news from all quarters can be greatly increased by a little attention on the part of our friends, for which we shall ever remain grateful. Parties from above will confer an especial favor by furnishing us any Northern papers in their

BATON BOUGE.

All the rumors prevalent regarding the capture of Baton Rouge are, we are sorry to say, foundationless. After considerable effort to arrive at the truth, we can only say that there was not, up to noon to-day, any fighting at that point. Then, indeed, when a riotous mobocracy shall and that Madame Rumor, as usual, has been lying. We are, however, expecting stirring news their councils, "doubt" in their minds, and blockade from the lower Mississippl.

"A HAND ROAD TO TRAVEL."

A special dispatch from Memphis to the Chicago Times says: "A man named Dr. Leftwitch, formerly a resident of Memphis, but lately from INTERVENTION AND RECOGNITION. Result nnknown. the North, was captured, with six thousand dollars in gold, last week, with which he was buy- which we publish this evening, it is tolerable aping cotton. He is at Grenada, in company with parent that the British government have no idea at their place of destination. a number of cotton traders who have been of interfering in American affairs, until, at least, picked up by guerrillas. The rebels got fifteen the aspect of things is materially changed. The or twenty thousand dollars cut of these adventur- resolution of Mr. Lindsay, favoring recogniers. Nearly all who ventured out have been tion, has been debated in Parliament, and picked up."

The success of our partisans is gratifying Oue or more of these " adventurers" are now in "durance vile" in this city, where they no and shows, moreover, that that policy is to partment of the Appointance-Petersburg, headdoubt have plenty of time to speculate upon the stand alcot and let the two belligerants fight it quarters. uncertainty of human calculations

MECRUSTING AT THE NORTH.

The monster meetings at the North, and the liberal subscriptions of money to pay extra ence from any quarter. This position of Engbounty, have not pushed forward the work of land, too, may have the beneficial effect of graphical Union," is the commandar. recruiting as fast as was expected by LINCOLN nerving our people to more energetic action in that the cry of the Union and the stars and it is hardly possible that any among us can freight room. stribes would at once cause a rush to the tented longer remain lethargic or inactive. field of all that would be wanted. The fighting | The truth is, it rests entirely with the Southelement—those who fight for glory, or for "the ern people whether this shall be a long or a short deal of mischief to transports. The V. F. Wilfun of the thing," was exhausted a year age, war. A vigorous prosecution of it will bring it son, they say, was riddled on her last trip up, and now the indications are that the volunteer- to a speedy close, but it cannot be so prorecuted and the Victoria go; a dozen shots into her in ing system will prove a failure.

In Chicago all the clap-trap possible has been made available : we learn from the Times of the 31st the result. That journal gives the fellow- throw as many troops in the field as the North feeble efforts made stimulate to increased activing as the returns from the recruiting officers: Captain I. H. Williams, at No. 147 Rendolph street, has forty-four men. Capt Chadbourne, in Court House Square

Capt. G. W. Chandler, in Court House Square, The Arthur Guards, at No. 87 Randolph street, have eight men. Capt. Reid, in Court House Square, has eight twenty five men. The Doggett Guards, in the mercantile asso have also the Wicker Guards, on Dearborn for mediatorial aid, but relying upon the prowess causing dealers to preserve a wide margin in the Hecker-Jaeger regiment, at 139 Randolph street, us put our own shoulders to the wheel, and the reports that he has sixty-eight men, while other good work is done-the fee is defeated and our West, but the present drooping tendency in rates parties in the city have in the aggregate one independence achieved. hundred and eleven recruits for the same regiment. There are also one hundred and ninety recruits in Springueld for this regiment. This is the total of nearly thirty days work in pated. The response to Lincoln's call is certainly not very cheering.

pose the Federal government will not place in cotton sent seaward was about fifteen bales money, had decided not to put amount, for the the field the number of men it requires. We Four vessels took one bale each. Seventy-three present at least, any but notes of small denomirefer to the lack of spirit in volunteering only bales had been received from Baton Rouge, and mations and fractional parts of a dollar, for con to show that the people of the North, who must | two hundred and twenty nine from Vicksburg. do the fighting of that section, will not do so of Buder is evidently distressed by this "cotton" price in New York to-day was 1144. their own free will and accord. The leaders, famine." however, have determined to prosecute the war, | The deaths week before last were 174. There does not supply their wasts, the draft will fol- cases of fever of any kind. low, sud for this, in the event of volunteering | The Bulletin has a warm tribute to the memofailing, they are now preparing. Silently, but ry of its former editor, Col. Saymour, who was ration on the first of September, will be a fruitful of muskets, the following significant facts were throughout the country, by the State government for taxes will lessen the the stand, and testified that the company had a cight millions of freemen and slaves interarmed vessel to run under sixty guns looks like and the union of the States under it, provide amount in circulation for the time being and the contract with the government to manufacture mingled." The inference to be drawn from the will do it, even at the risk of throwing into the refusing to fight for the odious measures of the people of Louisiana, or, perhaps, to let himself silver another, old demand notes a third, then assistance rendered. last Congress—the announcement has been mornings and find himself a captive. made that unless the quota of the State is made up by volunteers by the 1st of September, the find in the following paragraphs: draft will be resorted to.

It will be done. The North will have its army, no matter how much dissatisfaction which we noticed Monday as on their way down as the laws give him the power to get the men and anchored in front of the city. out. Let our people be active. We must make | THE METROPOLITAN CLUB ARRESTED. every exertion to repel the horde that Lincoln will force down upon us-we must drive them has always been at the head of Claiborne and back to their masters. While they fight be- Gasquet streets. The venerable sachems who sause they cannot avoid it, we battle for our liberties. Let us do it as men who descrive

RAILBOAD ACCIDENT.-By a collision on the The result has been that a squad of Federal Montgomery and Pensacola railroad, on Friday | soldiers, Friday last, "bagged" the whole club. last, between an empty train down and a full All classes of society will involuntarily drop a one up, two persons were killed and forty wounded. One engineer was badly hurt, and many of the cars destroyed. No cause for the of J. Boggert & Co., sugar brokers, was found accident has been assigned.

WHERE IS PRICE! - A dispatch to the North; from near Vicksburg, says : Rumors freshen that Gen. Price is marching upon us from Gaines' landing send fears are apprehended that we shall stated that if he could not come to Philadelphia, soon be forced to retreat. The situation here she would come here in the fall. He had $1,730.65 and a gold watch. has few pleasant aspects indeed.

tian rangers has secured six pieces of light inhabitants of the city, Mr. Antoine Michoud.
The eccentricities of Mr. Michoud's life gave him rather an obscure position in society.

with the Federals near Horn Lake creek, by a 8398: e sepany of guerrillas, Mr. Cullen Blackman, of A full board of school visitors met last even- own brothers, administering to all their necess; more, which he did not get. Hernando, was killed. He was first wounded ing, and after taking four or five ballots for a ties in food, clothing, nursing, and medical aton the head by a piece of shell, and afterwards shot through and through by some half dozen of the enemy. Mr. Biackman was the only person lost on our side. Three of the Federals person, without making a choice. Each balloted for were person lost on our side. Three of the Federals person, the city recorder, and J. B. Sendder, The property of the Manual of the Manu Esq , an old and experienced teacher.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH. Little more than twelve months ago the North vas mustering and marshaling her innumerable Exchange of Prisoners. egions to such a magnificent extent as to excite MOBILE, August 5 .- A special to the Adver he wonder and admiration of Europe and to fix tiser and Register, dated Richmond the 4th, the gaze of all the world. Then all was hope, says the Confederate prisoners at Baltimore and nity and confidence, swelling into insolence, Washington have been released and started home amidst rejoicings. The Federal prisoners arrogance and bombast. But fifteen months of the war has wrought a most wonderful change are sent from Richmond daily. in the hearts and minds and ideas of that vain-After Pienynne Butler.

glorious people. Now, according to our tele-The Confederate government opened a corre pondence with the United States governmen graphic report, all is, with them, "confusion, oub: and dismay:" and we shall not wonder, uquiring whether Butler's conduct is sanc if in less than six or twelve months more, we tioned. No answer being received, another should find them the victims of anarchy in its letter has been sent, saying further silence will worst form. All the elements for such a state be construed as an indorsement of his conduct. of things are in their midst, and their first de-War on Neu-Combatants. Pope cont nues to lay waste, burn and destroy. velopings are even now beginning to show

WHAT A CHANGE!

peace and order in their own sections.

they are just now beginning to resp and expeanticipated when their discomfitted armies and hireling soldiers are driven back upon them.

rule in their midst, will "confusion" dwell in dismay " in their hearts. The gloomy wings

f dispair are even now throwing dismal shad-

From the tenor of the English intelligence would at least lead us to an early termination of

COM. FARRAGUT'S FLEET.-The flag ship

Hertford, the frigates Richmond and Brooklyn, and several gunboats, of Com. Farragut's fleet, called the "Metropolitan." Its headquarters used to meet there every evening to discuss poliattention lately to the discussion, or rather to the promulgation, of views not exactly in ac-ordance with the ideas of "the powers that he."

tear over the extinction of the old and venerable

SUDDEN DEATH -Mr. James Stavens, agen

ying on Canal street yesterday about 2 o'clock

the second district police station, where he soon after died. Deceased was about fifty-eight years sf age, and a resident of Philadelphia. He had an affectionate letter from his wife, in which she an insensible condition. He was conveyed to ics, philosophy, etc., it seems, have turned their portant orders from Butler.

ows upon their hopes, and a dark, dolorous future lies before them.

hally withdrawn.

themselves. Ere the time we have mentioned and drive male citizens from their homes within shall expire, the North instead of the South may his lines. Bight of Smancipation Denied. be looking with longing eyes to European inter-

The Yankee newspapers in despair of the vention or mediation, for the establishment of respect of peace, begin to talk and show themselves. The New York Journal of Commerce Without stopping to count the consequences, the people of the North plunged into this war denies the right to emancipate slaves under any expressed wishes, and against the policy and inwith a blind seal and infuriated fanaticism, and circumstances.

Trouble at the North There are numerous arrests at the North, and | kings." rience its bitter fruits. Their bad passions are beginning to turn inward upon themselves, in numerous descritions from the army. All is conoportion as they are repulsed from Southern fusion, doubt and dismay throughout Yankee soil, and the most direful results may be safely land. More Vessels Captured. Northern papers say the Federals have captured the British schooner Agnes and the Contederate steamer Reliance, which had run the

> RICHMOND, August 5 -- A Yankee gunbos ol aground in the mouth of the Appointtiex near City Point, on Sunday. The Confederate batteries were firing at her yesterday afternoon.

Gunboat in Trouble.

Gen. Bragg and staff have safely arrived

Msjor-General Law, Wallace was at Indianapolis on the 30th, en route for Memphis-He was called upon for a speech, and responded in his usual style. The position taken by Lord PALMERSTON Major-General D. H. Hill (Bethel Hill, clearly indicates the policy of the government has been assigned to the command of the De-out. This idea suits us amazingly well, as our The journeymen printers of the North ndependence, when achieved, will be worth all are organizing a "Union Typo Battalion," for the more to us from baving been gained by our the war. It will rendezvous at Chicago. John own might and prowess, and without interfer M. Farquhar, president of the "National Typo- past experience.

Flour is quoted at $15 a barrel in New and his supporters. Superhuman efforts are the vigorous prosecution of the war. With the Orleans; salt, $3 per sack for fine Liverpool making to fill up the old regiments and organize full and certain knowledge that in our own prime sugar 6 cents, and molasses, thin fermentthe three hundred new ones, but thus far the restrong arms and high resolves is reposed the ing, II cents per gallon. So much sugar was sult is a disappointment to those who anticipated fate and destiny of ourselves and our posterity, going off that sales were restricted from lack of

The Federals admit that about Greenville, diss., the Confederates are doing an in unless our generals in the field are furnished coming down. We advocated, months ago, the with the men and means necessary for that purestablishment of a flying artillery force on the pose. It is within the power of the South to river. Let the success that has attended the can possibly do at this time, in view of the ity in this direction. The Mississippi, independpresent state of feeling existing there, and it is ent of our defenses, as at Vicksburg, is debateour conviction that if this were done at once, it sble. would measurably prove tantamount to, or

Money Matters at the North. The Chicago Times of the 31st ult., says:

the war. The North will be much harder to The supply of currency is abundant and the nove than she has yet shown herself to be, when her people are given to know and to feel that subjugation of the South has to be reached | d ing in breadstuifs. The banks are discount over the conquered and subdued bodies of half ling all good paper offered at rates ranging from to 10 per cent. Gold is quiet and very little is a million of braye, chivalric Southern soldiers. doing. The rates to-day were quoted at 113 to ation rooms, have just opened their rolls, as Lei us then case to lock beyond the Atlantic 115, the fluctuations in the New York market of our arms and the holiness of our cause, let buying rates-the market closing at 113. The has temperarily checked this. Silver is being sent East in considerable amounts on specul tions. The West will soon be completely drain The Meblie Tribune has received files of New ed of silver coin. What is not hounded by the

Orleans papers as late as the 39th ult. There is laboring classes will be bought up and sent East. In lieu thereof the people must be con-Cuicage, from which city to much was antici- nothing of great interest in them; no new or im-The experts amount to a large sum in sugar | the fact that Mr. Chase, alarmed at the growing and molasses; but for four days the sum total of premium it was commanding consequent upon venience as a matter of change. The closing

"We must be prepared for excessive and unxpected fluctuations in the price of gold. The and they will have the men. If volunteering is no report of yellow faver cases, or of many sudden addition of twenty millions to the currency will send it up; the withdrawal of the ces alleged to have been rendered the Providence of the contest under a degrading sense of inferi- kansas. The Essex received several shot through same amount will have an exactly contrary of. Tool campany in negotiating a contract with the ority, without we can make an alliance, off-unive her, and had one man killed and two wounded. effectually, goes on the work of enrolling all slain recently in Virginia. It is written with as cause of fluctuations in the price of the precious elicited and sworn to. The treasurer of the comsubject to military duty. It is being done much heartiness as though Butler was not at metals. Large payments of legal tender notes pany, John B. Anthony, Esq., was placed upon ty-three millions of freemen are not equal to were volunteers and acted nobly. For an unments, and in several of the States it has been same paper discussed very freely the negro price of gold will of course fall. In time the 25,000 muskets, negotiated by the assistance of stricks from which we make these extracts is, a Divine providence. completed. This will enable Lincoln to soon question in this war, and is as free in it as if it payment of this tax will make a use for a cer- Senator Simmons and several others, among that we can manage very well without such an The remainder of the first engaged sustained fill up his ranks, and should it be necessary he | were safe within the Confederate States. The | tain amount of the government currency affort, whom was Schator Anthony, simply, as was sup-Picagane also takes a little more latitude in the and will give all of it a superior value to the ir- posed, out of a friendly desire on the part of range of its opinions, from which we infer that redeemable bank issues of the country. We will those gentlemen to help their triends. There by the quotations we have made. We are sur- and the terrible Arkausas lies secure under the field an unwilling soldiery. In Illinois, where Butler himself begins to have a better under-therefore have confusion worse confounded in all was not the slightest bargain made with any of prized that the inconsistency should not have guns of Vicksburg. recruiting has been very slow-the Democrats standing of the subject, or desires to placate the values hereafter. Gold will bear one premium. off easy, if he should wake up one of these legal tender notes will have a superior value to rich harvest for the brokers, but will cause infinits annoyance and loss to the trade of the coun- Mr. Anthony thought the Senator was jesting at | ness-a loathsome amalgamation, having in it | eral men wounded. as a sufficiency of postage stamps are floated to purpose, Mr. Anthony said he was not author- is not enough to say that we can manage with exists. Lincoln will prosecute the war so long the river from Vicksburg, arrived that afternoon supply the wants of the trading community in | ized to do any such thing, and could not do it. out such an alliance; but it should be denounced will again become abundant. This is a mistake; directors, and, whenever he met any of them, 1 The object sought by such an alliance is alone this inferior currency always drives out the su- insisted that the company were in his debt, and perior; and the more postage stamps are issued claimed the specified sum of five thousand insurrection in the South, with all its attendant

the bank paper currency on account of its use

The only local news of interest the reader will in the payment of taxes. All this will create a

The cause of all our miseries is an excessive issue of irredeemable paper, and until the one for which Senator Simmons claimed a bo- have spent years in promulgating false and fanlegitimate business of the country, and not the hus) was unprofitable, because the machinery cital theories of Southern weakness and imbonecessities of the treasury department, dectates necessary to manufacture the musket cost much | cility-who assured us that the South could not the amount of paper we shall use, the prescut more than was anticipated, and so much as to be driven from the Union, but who are now eager Russell, and wrote a few epistles for the London unbappy state of things will grow steadily render the contract an unprofitable one. That to acknowledge defeat, and affirm that our only Resolution of Thunks.

CAMP VERNON, NEAR ABREVILLE, Miss. 7 EDITORS APPEAL: The 12th Louisiana regient, in congregated assembly, on the evening of the 4th inst., called Maj. Neel L. Nelson to the chair and appointed Serg't-Msj. H. Brunner, sec-retary. Surgeon U. R. Milner was called upon to explain the object of the meeting, which he did in a few appropriate and elegant remarks.

On motion of Adjulant Sanditord a committee of the down with a cool five thousand. It is a second to the did in a few appropriate and elegant remarks.

On motion of Adjulant Sanditord a committee of the distinct of the did in a few appropriate and elegant remarks. It is a cool five thousand. lutions fulfilling the object of the meeting. Sur. to engage in some business speculations, told talized. We with material resources that more geon U. R. Milner, Capt. H. V. McCain, Capt. him (the witness) that he needed the money, than treble theirs, and an unrestricted trade with E. M. Graham, Lieut. A. C. Alexander and Ma. and, if they would not give it to him, they must the world; with a navy that blockades every DEATH OF ANTOINE MICHOUD .- We have to 8 Carson, were appointed. The committee re- lend it to him, or he would not only not lend harbor on their coast, cutting them off from all GLORIOUS NEWS.—Acee's battalion of par. chronicle to day the death of one of the oldest tired, drafted and reported through their chair. them his influence in negotiating a second con- supplies but those furnished by their own terms.

H. BRUNNER Secretary.

SELF-RELIANDE NECTSSARY.

EDITORS APPEAL: There is in Esop an old fa- Suffering in the North for Want of Cotton-The ole of Hercules and a Cartman, the moral of which goes to show that those who do not help themelves must not call on the gods for assistance The Southern people should bear in mind to apgle for release from the meshes of tyranny. Unlike Hercules, they neglected in their youth to crush the serpent which threatened destruction, god to destroy it in its might.

versive of our rights, appealing to the world and be sealed. posterity for the justice of the act, and to the of cotton in Liverpool, against 1,123,000 bales sustain by the South's withdrawal from the sons who have heretofore been employed in the year, have we coped with the foe, and proved england.

Ourselves, in the Cabinet and on the battle-field, "But we are to have cotton," say the abolinot only the equals but the superiors of the Southern ports are to be opened, and cotton is to aggressors. With a magnificently-equipped pour in upon us most plentifully. army, with a boasted navy, all taught by mas talk of crazy fanatics and fools. The Southern that an ingenious and prosperous country could a measure so essential to their independence have blundered in their legislation, and their mirages to their bewildered eyes.

patriotic hearts and stout arms of ourselves. overty, degradation, slavery, will be our inev- through the year. No attempt will be made t table lot, as surely as the night succeeds the raise it until this war is over; and the war will day. Our existence at the mercy of a base foundations of Southern industry, Southern busi lespotism, our property at the disposal of his ness and Southern social life are everturned money-loving appetites, ourselves refugees over | Abolitionism has taken the reins, and it will not the earth without a home and without a country, is thrown into confusion, and all hope of the our posterity a cursed and unhappy people. Be raising of cotton is destroyed. The legislation not deceived. We speak by the light of a little of this fanatical Congress has rendered restora-

Yet, on the other hand, should we be successa career with prospects the resist glorious and the policy of the abolitiosists while resistence is tors for the future.

According to our idea, we have exhibited heart shall send it pulsating beneath Federal rule. In our judgment, we are clearly entitled to recognition as a nation, from civilized govutation and missing the part and sacrificed fifty thousand lives, and got for it all—to recognition as a nation, from civilized govutation and missing by a show of bayonets, and lost the fleet below failed to come up; not even to recognition as a nation, from civilized govutation and missing the part and right shere, with her ports closed, while the remainder of the fleet engaged the batteries in a spirited manner. right due us, we must fight on for decades if it south of Mason and Dixon's line. worthy the destiny which is to attend success. | must stop. Her laboring men are to become own small experience thus far that" the race is employment, must take care of themselves. not always to the swift, nor the kattle to the

Doubt, despondency, discourage are unmanly feelings and should have no place in the bosoms of those who are enlisted to share our fate, even to wards and be recipients of the blessings which rights and their homes.

his policy of flooding the country with paper and we must be hopeful out of our own selves to "conquer a peace." ARTILLERIST. VICKSBURG, August 1, 1862.

Seuntor Simmon ... Shumefal Develop-

From the Newport (R. I) Naws.] In the course of the trial now progressing be fore the United States circuit court in this city in which John Norris seeks to recover for servi-

There is a prevalent impression that, as soon | Soon, however, being waylaid again to the same | feature of honor or policy. We suggest that if s matter of change, coats and silver change | Senator Simmons then went to work upon the with scorn and detestation. the less chance is there for retaining our metal dollars. But they all and always repudiated his borrors, would so blacken our history that the fact made the company very anxious to ne-gotiate a second contract, by which they could lif we are indeed, sunk so low, it is time the gotiate a second contract, by which they could Senator Simmons was aware of this fact, and people. Let it be buried in Virginia, whose rebels So, whenever he met the treasurer or the di-tract, but he would use it againt them.

Resolved. That the citizens of Covington and vicinity in taking our sick into their own families and caring for them as if they were their own brothers, administering to all their necessities, and after taking four or five ballots for a superintendent, they adjourned until Monday evening, without making a choice. Each ballots evening, without making a choice. Each ballots of their except to the superintendent, they adjourned until Monday evening. Without making a choice. Each ballots of their except to the superintendent, they adjourned until Monday evening. Without making a choice. Each ballots of their except to the superintendent of the streets that a full bear's erew had described from Fort Morgan, with a Yankee at their head, and made good their escape at their head and made good their escape at their head. Can this be considered from Fort Morgan, with a Yankee at their head and made to supplied the streets of the shiftend from Fort Morgan, with a Yankee at their head. Can this be could be supplied their escape to the possible? That the citizens of Covington and full beat's erew had described from Fort Morgan, with a Yankee at their head, and made good their escape to the possible? That the citizens of Covington and full beat's erew had described from Fort Morgan, with a Yankee at their head, and made to subject the State, and not be could be supplied their escape to the possible? That the citizens of Covington and full beat's erew had described from Fort Morgan, with a Yankee at their head, and made to subject the State of their escape to the possible? That the citizens of Covington and full beat's erew had described from Fort Morgan, with a Yankee at their head, and made to subject the State, and made to subject the satisfication of the possible? That the citizens of the full beat's erew had described from Fort Morgan, with a Yankee at their head, and made to subject the state of their research the state of the full beat's erew had described from Fort Morgan, with a Yankee at their head, and made to subj gunboats are now laid up for repairs. Never yet has there been a time when they were so much needed. Rebel cannon balls have proven think of so strange an occurrence. Who is

Cotton is King.

Success of the North in this War Declared The following editorial, from the Provide (R. I.) Post, shows very plainly to what straits ply this, and recollect not to rely upon the sid of the North is being brought by this war. It is a the owners are absent rebels, to collect the rants was any man accustomed to public affairs who other powers than their own in this their strug- startling exposition of the state of affairs and for government. A Military Commission has had not been led by Lord Palmerston to believe feeling in the North:

From the Providence Post, July 18.1

Our market quotations this morning show the prices of cotton in this city, and indicate very and hence now that it is seeking to fasten its plainly to what we are coming. We are to redeadly folds around their entire being, they must slize unmistakably all the horrors of a cotton exert the giant strength of the full grown Europe. Prices are to go up, not down, until there comes a general financial and commercial In this war for independence, as our fathers smash up. Indeed, we are to get no more cothad done before us, we did, on our own respon- ton in the next three years. Our mills have got sibility, shake off a government which in its cor- blind, may already see rain staring them in the ruption, had become tyranical, odious and sub- face. In six months Rhode Island's fate will common sense and calm judgement of the op- at a corresponding date last year. Were the pressor for a proper settlement of affairs which | mills to run on full time, every pound of cotton we had previously held corjointly. Against our in England would be used in four weeks! In dia, of which we have heard so much in aboliterests of our enemy and ourselves, we were occasioned by the loss of the American article lriven for that settlement to "the last arbiter of Instead of sending more than usual to market, there was afloat, at last accounts, of India cot-Exasperated at the loss they were about to ton, only 45,000 bales, against 240,000 last year, and 230,000 in 1860. There are millions of per-Union, the North, Caesar-like, determined to cotton manufactories of England, four fifths o cross the rubicon and attempt our subjugation.

Thus far, single-handed and alone for over a extent fearful to contemplate, is to exist in New

ters of tested ability, drilled in the school of ports may be opened; but we shall get no cotton. The old crop will be destrayed whether experience, and furnished with every supply the owners like it or not. They dare not resist want, they promised that Southern rebels should | The torch will be applied to nearly every bale bite the dust in the course of a month. They that remains unburned to-day: and not more than enough is being raised for Southern consumption. The uniform testimony is that there war successes and conquests proved only as are no cotton fields to be seen on the Mississip-"Plant corn and not cotton," was the order,

In the future let us trust, as in the past, to the and it has been strictly obeyed. "But next year we will get cotton enough, some abolitionists will say. We know better Should we be defeated in this war, misery, We shall be lucky if we get a bale per week not end, as things now look, until even the tion almost impossible until nearly the white population of the South has been exterminated and the North has brought upon itself bank then will this country of ours be started in ruptcy and ruin. The South will not yield to ossible, and in spite of all we can do it may

Let us not be deluded into a lack of vigilance sold for ten cents on the dollar. stead of this, our whole course has been calcu- were to attack and tow out the Arkansas. recognition, and to withhold what we deem a cause will hereafter find little hearty sympathy | from below. And now, we say again, the North is to bear rained on and around her, the lower batteries

a necessary, and in a manner worthy ourselves, her full share of suffering. Her cotton mills having no better mark. of the niggers; white people, without bread or

The Negro Alliance.

"Whether the rebels are deserted by their slaves or supported by their slaves, we can whip These be very parlous words, and the New York World will straightway be classed as a se- Arkanans the contents of her three eleven-inch the god of battles has surely in store for a peo- cession sheet. Had a democratic journal used bow-guns. ple brave and determined, battling for their the same language there would have been an instant invocation for mob law. Now that an orthodox divine has given a text, shall it not be improved by a sermon! The idea of the World | thinking she could do no good, unsupported stamps. The decline in gold is explained by enlarges our capacities, experiences us in the is good, as far as it goes, but it requires exten- as she appeared to be, she dropped down. But general management and smaller details of war, sion. Had it said that if we do not whip them | she war not altogether unsupported. The Queen without an alliance with negroes the North will of the West was nobly coming up to her aid, deserve to be damned to everissing infamy it and, though she arrived too late to act in conwould have declared the whole counsel. But | cert with the Essex, she attacked the Arkansas for the partial proclamation of the truth we are | alone. She ran head down, and gave the Arkanevidence either of advance in republicanism, or again so forcibly as to strain her own works the Sth New Hampshire regiment, writes to the of a disgust always felt but not before expressed, badly in the bow. The Queen then backed out Amherst Cubinet that these of the regiment The World has glimpses of the truth, but as | and came up the river. yet sees through a glass darkly. "Surely," it The Essex and Queen received a terrible show-

says, "we are not so degenerate as to sneak out | er of shot as they approached and left the Arand defensive, with the servile race of the South. The Queen, though shot through and through a Picase to hang, with the dirucest rope in your Why should we so shame our own manhood as dozen times, made a miraculous escape. She garret, all those in the North who are willing to make the pusillanimous confession that twen-did not sustain any loss of life. All her crew sacrifice the success of the cause in which we alliance, but that it would not be objectionable. no harm. The inconsistency of any such idea is shown them in reference to any remuneration for any been noted and avoided. What is this proposed Mr. Anthony further testified that after the slaves-between the most elevated and most de- lately taken from plantations to work on the first, and paid but little attention to the matter. All that is revolting and unredeemed by a single neither past glory nor future effort could efface He further testified that the first contract (the the stain. Those who advocate this alliance e reimbursed for losses on the first contract. scepter should be taken from the hands of the white men for the benefit of white men, what five was appointed by the chair to draft resc. And that finally Senator Simmons, being about and bold-theirs half slaves, ignorant and bru-

rather destructive to Abe's river monsters." | cuipable! - Mobile Tribune, 3d.

Additional from the South, via North. To the Associated Press, North,

New York, July 30 .- A special to the Tri-

The guerrillas captured several prominent cit- tion which their navy bure to ours in sas, and Magruder over both. The Union forces land than in the time of Louis Philippe. are ample to check them."

failed. The Essex had three shots put through delusive, and he cited various statements made her, and was compelled to pass on down the by Lord Palmerston of the forces of France, naiver. The Queen butted the Arkausas, but did val and military, the correctness of which he her no damage, and retired considerably disa- challenge own the river.

unius Brown, of the N. Y. Tribune, slightly.

res field-pieces, endeavoring to find transpor- in the opinion of his countrymen. ation across into Arkansas. It is believed he | The London Times, commenting upon this ended to stop and seize one of Gen. Curtis' passage at arms, remarks: ansports. A cavalry force was sent up from fled in different directions into the interior.

inding, are still obstructing the passage of anything better. busts. The obstructions will be removed in a ow days, and communication re-established. General Sherman will issue an order to-morw forbidding purchasers to pay gold or treas- the Cincionati Commercial, the following paraury notes for conton or augar to planters who cannot establish their past and present loyalty. graph, which should certainly satisfy the appearance establish their past and present loyalty. Under the operation of the old order of Gen. tite of the North for the hetrible Grant, a commission is now engaged in exam- Ah, my dear S-, with what satisfaction ning into the loyalty of property owners, in the have I escaped from that region of tyranny and city and vicinity, where there is any question as oppression! The history of this impious war, disloyalty. The property is seized for the use for the extension and perpetuity of slavery, of the government, subject to future adjudica- will never be fully written. No one can tell i

The commissioners appointed by Gen. Grant is taken. Well, you who live far away cannot have already saized one hundred and thirteen comprehend the delirium this has raised. houses and stores belonging to rebels. The fore surrendering it, the planters burned their roperty has been cenfiscated.

From Vicksburg.

pecial Disputch to the Chicago Times.] or the relaxation of a tireless energy by any hope of foreign intervention. This one thing the truth. We warned the people in 1856 of By an agreement between Commoders Davis they were carried. They preferred to burn their hope of foreign intervention. This one thing the truth. We wanted the people in the truth the truth the truth the truth the people in the truth the tru retard the attainment of our end. The past is it might be brought to an end, and the South be rangement, the fleet below was to come up and tory, particularly because it did not burt their we followed the conservative policy and asserted | gunboats were to engage the upper. The Essex only the supremacy of the Constitution. In- and ram Queen of the West, in the meantime, the workshops, and locked the doors; the fire to the world enough of civil ability and military power to warrant the belief that we are abun bearing to the world enough of civil ability and military power to warrant the belief that we are abun hearing the Southern people, disbearing the child, the old man, the woman, or any who dantly able in every respect to maintain our North into factions. We are farther from a final weighed anchor and steamed down the river, might leap from the windows or reof to escape the last drop of life blood in the cause, ere the | Congress and a yielding President. We have | purpose is unknown. The Eesex passed on, ernments; yet if they hesitate to yield us this them by a show of radiculism. The Union the Sumter, which was relied on, fixed a gun closely. The Chicago Times' Washington cor As the Essex passed down, the shots literally > enemy from the Essex. The robel fire was tremendous, and it seemed planted in the town. Arkansas and jam her against the rocky levee, grazed her side only, and then ran into the principles of the Mouroe doutries. shore. As she went on, however, she gave the

As they lay alongside, they exchanged shots As soon as the Elssex got loose from the shore, grateful. That a Republican journal should thus | sas a butt that made her tremble from stem to oldly attack the hobby-horse of abolitionism is | stern. Recovering herself, the Queen ran on

The whole movement has proved a failure,

The Cares went down the river a few miles alliance? It is a union between freemen and last night to return a large number of negroes outract was negotiated Senator Simmons met graded of races-a virtual acknowledgment of canal. While returning, this morning, she was eight thousand, this morning and drove them him, and remarked that the company ought to equality-a union between intelligence and ig- fired upon by a new schel battery below, and a make him a handsome present for that contract. norance-a confession of scowardice and weak- captain of the 6th Vermout was killed and sev-

THURLOW WEED -There has been no small degree of amusement, says the Paris correspond tion which the Albany Warwick met upon his enough to damn it. The creation of a servile arrival in America, and the mention of the "dis tinguished services" which he performed behalf of our cause and government during hi uring the whole of that tour, Mr. Weed was "like a fish out of water," and really did not know what to do with himself, and therefore di but little. In England he called on Lord John Times, and, being able to speak the language o the country, sustained the action of our govern ment, as any other patriotic citizen would, when ever occasion offered. Beyond this his "services" actually amounted to nothing, and in after trying the button-hole process on the treas- we are unable to conquer without the assistance | France and Germany the languages of the counurer and directors with indifferent success, he of their slaves. If Douglas was right in saying try operated as an effectual drawback upon Mr. this is a government of white men, framed by Weed's missionary efforts. He received the Pope's blessing, however, in Rome, but whether hat included absolution for all his past political ins I am not informed, although he had a powerful advocate with his holiness there in his riend Archbishop Hughes, who, by the way, its Riddleton Female Academy is said, was much favored by the Pope during his sojourn in the Eternal City.

Row to Supply Mississippi with Salt. transports has secured six pieces of light breech leading artillery. These will be invaluable against the enemy's transports on the Missisppi river. Two companies are wanted to sissippi river. Two companies are wanted to sissippi river. Two companies are wanted to sissippi river. Two companies which have worthed filed by the secured him of that station life which he might have worthed filed by the securation of the citizens of Covington and the securation of the citizens of the company, and the securation of the citizens of the company, and the securation of the citizens of the company, and the securation of the coverage of the coverage of the securation of the coverage of the coverage of the securation of the coverage of the coverage of the securation of the coverage of the coverage of the securation of the coverage tory, where manufactures are hardly known; tention of the people not only in this county, ment Southern Motive.

A Quarrel between Palmerston and Cobden

Lore Palmerston and Richard Cobden have lien out. In the House of Commons on the vac. Memphis. 28th, via Cairo. 30th, says: - 7th of July, during a debate on the Fortificati Gen. Grant has ordered Gen. Sherman to take | bill, Mr. Cobden observed that the facts proved possession of all unoccupied stores, dwellings, that the former statements as to the French navy and manufactories for government; also, where had been incorrect, and he saked whether there cans of Haywood county on Saturday, for sell- times. And that was the mason why the House ing cotton. One was shot dead while attempt had been called upon to vote enormous esti-ing to escape. The rest were taken to Missis-mates for the navy. He had had as good an opportunity as Lord Palmerston himself for know Price has twenty-five cannon across the Mis- ing the state of both navies, and he undertool issippi, near Napoleon, and is endeavoring to to say in opposition to his assertion, test for the cross his whole army. The rebels say that Price last twelve or feurteen years, the French navy is to command in Missouri, Hindman in Arkan- had borne a far less proportion to that of Eng read statements of the expenditure in the French MEMPHIS, July 28, 3 P. M. (via CAIRO, July | and English dockyards, and of the number 0.)-The ram Queen of the West has arrived seamen in the two navies, and asked if thes rom Vicksburg. She left the flotilla on the statements could not be gain said, what founds-24th. The gunb at Essex and ram Queen of tien was there for these gigantic fortifications the West endeavored to cut out the Arkansas, He maintained that the exaggerated accounts of under cover of the guns of the upper fleet, but the increase of the French navy were wholly bled. While engaging the batteries, the Benton | Lord Palmerston observed that he received was struck several times, but not seriously dam- the accusations of Mr. Cobden with the utmost aged. The Cincinnati had her escape pipe shot possible quietness. Differing as they did, these All but three of Farragut's fleet have gone was in a state of blindness and delusion which made him until to be distensed to as an adviser Davis' fleet is now anchored off the mouth of upon a question of this kind. He had accused him of great exaggerations. He denied the As the Queen was coming up the river, she charge; his statements had been confirmed by was attacked by rebels with four field-guns at papers before the Honor. Mr. Cobden had insti-Barolina landing, below Greenville, and several tuted a comparison between the expenditure i thots put through her. Thus. A. Spencer was the French and English dockyards and the illed, and two or three wounded, among them maval estimates in the two countries; but these comparisons were fundamentally fallacious as MEMPHIS, July 27, (ria Camo, July 30.) - measure of relative strength. He was satisfied assengers from Helena report that Juff. that the ideas of Mr. Cobdon upon this subject npson was at Austin, yesterday, with a were confided to a very few, and that his cen ody of men and ammunition train and two or sures would not damage him (Lord Palmeraton

It appears that the fire has only been smoulena but failed to find the rebels, who had dering for years, that Mr. Cobden has all along regarded Lord Palmerston as the chief enemy to There has been no arrival to-day from Vicks- peace and quiet; while Lord Palmerston ha equally regarded him as a man fit to "cobble." Some rebel batteries, erected opposite Gaines' a treaty of trade, but without a head or soul for > Another Horrible. We find in a letter from Texas, published in all. What blind rage and hate! New Orleans cotton, their sugar, their steam cotton presses and their retineries. They preferred this to confiscation and the thought that their goods would onrich their enemies. But-shame and crime unperalleled-they also burned their slaves was Hebted and aniekly did its work, while the Seward and Nappicon. The little mass at the North, between Sewars and his opponents, has caused the official con-The fleet below failed to come up; not even duct of the secretary to be scrutinized very

The lower mertar-heats fired a few shells, but shame. His friends are now boasting that h We learn by history, we have learned by our paupers. The government is going to take care they had no effect in diverting the fire of the has made a secret agreement with the French consented to stand still and look on while No as if every man's house-yard had been converted poleon invades Mexico, conquers her, and re-into a battery. Not less than sixty guns were duces her to the condition of a French province. as the price of Napolson's non-interference in our The Essex intended to run into the side of the civil war. That is, Seward "buys off" Napoleon them, or else the North deserves to be damned but the rebel craft swung out, and the Essex samex Mexico, and by giving up the sacred fool He knows that nothing but a treaty will bind the United States, and that the Senate alone the treaty-making power. It is probable, seen the Emperor and Mr. Lincoln's adminis truckling, such positianimous aban lumment of principle will overwhelm the administration with AN OFFICER'S OFFICEN -Lieut.-Col. Lull, of the 5th New Hampshire regiment, writes to the who went out to New Orleans " with anti-slavery proclivities are fast giving tham up." He forther says: I must ask of you a single personal favor.

tell you the price is too great; we can't afford Hon. Wm. M. Gwin, ex-Senator from Fighting Commenced at Baton Rouge. We learn by telegraph that Breckinridge's division attacked the enemy, numbering som brough the city to the river bank The firing of musketry was incessant for about one bour, and the thunder of the heavy guns on the fleet was terrific Saveral prisoners were taken by our forces. There is no report in relation to what the ficet was contending with - Mississippian, Ang.

LEATHER! LEATHER! WANTED, DESCRIPTION OF THE PARTY OF THE PART 2,000 has Light Sole twither, 10,000 her Tun and Black Harcons London, 230 Tanned Doer cities | For which cash will be i V. WERNER & CO., Dix's Works,

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

WATEDI following compensation: A likely Negro Boy and Five Hundred Dollara. Address: B , Lobacco for Sale. BOXES good Virginia Teburer for sale by

Carroll County. on the first MONDAY of SEPTEMBER, 1864, for MOTICE. To the Members of the 15 h Miss. Reg't.

meb. By order of M. FARSELL, sud-lw Lieut-Colonel Com'g litt Miss. Reg't.

OFFICIAL. BEADQUARTERS MISS STATE T

Major General's Cra Ackson, Miss., July 28, General Order No. 7. rice, and ordered to report in person to the ant of the Gamp of instruction for their dis-By command of Major General T. C. Tir.

> OFFICIAL | HEADQUARTERS WISE STATE TROS

Jackson, Mrs., July 11, 1802 Special Order No. 13. are hereby ordered into an ave morrico, and sie renfervors as soon as practicable to camp, tebrigadier General M. P. Berry, and in his about nmanders of Sixty truspain the mo-Brigade Division, are alwayed with the excen-

By command of M | Gen. T. C. Turray J. J. CONWAY, C.

PRODUCE LOAN

PARANCIS POB. Special Agent, will visit the tive of Lafayett. Yallahusha. Tallahusha. roll. Holmes, Attala, Laska. Medison, Callion byeribers and others decirous of dispusoften are requested to call upon him.

PASSPORTS.

THE Provest Marshal's office will be open ing Passports, within the hones of fill & M :

GOOD PARM, containing 2'0 seres of L. Iging four miles south of Panols Whitelening two hundred and easty serve of the above Lan rich ridge and eighty seres of their beauch to I about one hipdred screw cleared and now has bins. The place will be a lift cheap for Co

J. C. WOOTTEN or

A FARM FOR SALE

OFFER for sa's for Confederate money, or FARM.

There is on the place a new DWELLING, with Call quick if you want a good barra

J. P. STRANGE.

Works. CANTON, MISS. ANUFACTURE and Dress Artillery and Co cospectation Harness, Krapusche, Have RAVAVAY.

$50 REWARD: ONT on The clay night, July 10th, on the Mid-

"TO serve in the place of a member of Van Dern'

"EXTRACT." HEADQUARTERS SUBDITE OF DIS-Special Orders No. 23. APPHORITY is been y greated to Capt. J. G. Ral entire to matter into the activity of the Car

By order of Brigadier General Villiminus. KIMCOCH PALCONER. Capula and A. Afficiant-Games

RAILROAD.

CHANGE OF TIME. epiet.) 7:30 A. M. Arrive a Greunda, 200 P. M. Freight fram leaves Greunda en Monday, Wedroulsy nd Friday at 6 A. M. Arrives at Greunda on Toss-day, Thursday and Saintlay at 1. A. M. A. N. LIVERMORE. District Attorney. Where authorized to ancounce that Colonel W. M. BHANTLEY will be a cardinate for the effice of Defrict Attorney in the Tenth Missimippi District, the smuring election. ROTICE. N and after August 1st, 1852, the rates of freight on Mississippi and Tennessee Railroad Will be Raised 25 per Cent. The Company will not be responsible for loss or dan-age to any form, but will use every energing to delive Conductors are directed to charge passengers twenty five ceals more than the tariff rates from stations wh The charge for half thekets will in every instance be-even charge. For example, tall face from Giucada to Secutobla is $3.25; helf face will be $1,75, with an adlike all charge of the if paid on the toain.

Agests are directed to open their offices for the sales for the tapacted ar-

By order of Col. P. M. WHITE, President, A S. LIVERMONE.
General Superintendent Grenada, Missis ippi, July 12, 1862.

CAMP OF INSTRUCTION ! General Order No 1.

HAVIN's been arrived to the communication a Camp or Instruction, located at Brookhavon, Law-rence county, Mississippi, on the New Orleans and Jackson Raur of, it is ord red that all presers not le-MUNDAY of SEPTEMBER, 1861, for gally exempt from envolvement for service in the wrinles of the Confederate states, between the special eighteen WM P. Symanum and thirty five, residing in the following countries and Mr. and Mrs. Wh. P. Strangilla will continue to take charge of the MUSICAL and PRINTING department.

BASELLA GIVEN.

BASELLA GIVEN.

Cotton Seed Oil.

Cotton Seed Oil.

BBLS. for any. Logure at the Depot of the Mississippi and Temperate Release.

A CIVERMORE

Ballentine's Partisans.

Clart Ballentine's Partisans and Hallentine Ballentine Ballentine Ballentine Ballentine Ballentine Contents.

Concent. Attain Holing, Deliver, Martine, Valishusha, Tallakathie, Steffower, Bolivar, Washington, Carroli, Concent. Attain Holing, Indiana, Valishusha, Tallakathie, Steffower, Bolivar, Washington, Carroli, Concent. Attain Holing, Indiana, Valishusha, Tallakathie, Steffower, Bolivar, Washington, Carroli, Concent. Attain Holing, Indiana, Valishusha, Tallakathie, Steffower, Bolivar, Washington, Carroli, Concent. Attain Holing, Indiana, Valishusha, Tallakathie, Steffower, Bolivar, Washington, Carroli, Concent. Attain Holing, Indiana, Valishusha, Martine Ballentine, Steffower, Bolivar, Washingt is possession of the enemy, who now are or may come within the limits of the above named counties, are ineladed in the above order.

All persons failing to comply with the above order, will be reported and trusted as describes. Est person will bring with him one blanket or quilt, whose farloughs have expired are ordered to re-

Transportation on the different railroads will be forej1 28-2w Commanding Camp of Instruction,